

Mary-Claire Burick, President of the Roslyn Business Improvement District, works with local businesses, residents and government officials on the county, state and federal level to ensure that Rosslyn flourishes as an urban center. In her role, she helps to position businesses for success by building engagement, offering highly curated resources and leading change.

Previously, Mary-Claire was President of MC Strategy, a consulting firm helping leaders build healthy and effective organizations. She has also served as Vice President of Operations for Allbritton Communications, leading ABC-7, NewsChannel 8 and POLITICO. Earlier in her career, she helped launch the Fox News Channel, where she served as Operations Manager.
